

Ward Committees Sectors

PRESCRIBED SECTORS

Arts and Culture

- Includes fine, performing and visual arts based within a community or where an aspect of the community is the focus of activity
- Excludes commercial organisations, e.g. Ster-Kinekor

Business

- Includes community-based associations with a focus on business interests within a community in the formal or informal sectors
- Includes market gardeners and small-scale agriculture

CBOs (Civic-based organisations)

- Ratepayers' organisations based in a defined community
- Civic organisations based in a defined community
- Street committees and neighbourhood watches where safety and security is not the only reason for the organisation

Designated vulnerable groups

- Includes community initiatives addressing the needs of vulnerable aged, gender or disabled groups within a community
- Includes branches of city-wide or national organisations where the focus is within the community
- Includes organisations servicing the health sector

Education

- Includes Early Childhood Development Centres (ECDs), primary, pre-primary, high schools or secondary schools

Environment

- Includes the natural and built environment with a focus on a particular issue in a community
- Includes branches of a city-wide or national organisation where the focus is within the community

Faith-based organisations

- The church, mosque, temple or organisation based in the community, e.g. St Barnabas Anglican Church in Gardens

Safety and Security Organisations

- Organisations established within communities specifically to address safety and security issues
- Includes neighbourhood watches and street committees
- Includes Community Police Forums (CPFs)
- Includes Community Improvement Districts (CIDs) or Special Rating Areas (SRAs)
- Excludes commercial security companies acting independently of the community

Sports

- Includes all local sporting codes and clubs registered with the City
- Includes facility management committees

Youth

- Includes locally constituted organisations with a focus on young people and based within a community
- Includes branches of city-wide or national organisations where the focus is within the community