- 11) A person who contravenes subsections (8) or (9) is guilty an offence and upon conviction is liable to the penalties contemplated in sections 133(2) and 133(3).

Method and date of notification

The date of notification is determined as follows:
if the notification is provided -

- (a) orally, it is the date of oral communication;
- (b) by hand, it is the date of delivery or collection;
- (c) by registered post, it is regarded as the fourth day after the date stamped upon the receipt for registration issued by the post office which accepted the notice; or
- (d) by email or fax, it is the date that the email or fax is sent,

Interpretation Act No 33 of 1957 section 4

- (4) Reckoning of number of days. - When any particular number of days is prescribed for the doing of any act, or for any other purpose, the same shall be reckoned exclusive of the first and inclusive of the last day, unless the last day happens to fall on a Sunday or on any public holiday, in which case the time shall be reckoned exclusive of the first day and exclusive also of every such Sunday or public holiday.

As an example, if the date of notification is 1 October, then the first day of calculation of the 21 day appeal period will be 2 October and the 21st day would be 22 October. If 22 October is either a Sunday or a public holiday, then the closing date will be the next following day that is not either a Sunday or a public holiday.
